Study materials for the exam: From the UF Miami-Dade County Extension: SM53 - Private Applicator Agricultural Pest Control (Cost $8.25 by check or Money Order only - must be picked up in person). NOTE: We highly recommend reading the book before you take the class or exam. The failure rate is very high. Registration for the class must be by mail or in person. Please use the form at the bottom of this page.

What should I bring to the class? You must bring a government-issued photo ID and the last 4-digits of your Social Security number to take the exam. If you are attending for CEUs, please bring your license number. Bring a pen or pencil so you can take notes. This is a closed book exam.

When can I take the written exam? The 50 question Private Applicator Agricultural Pest Control Exam will be given at the end of the training. You can also take this exam any Tuesday or Thursday at 9 a.m. at the John D. Campbell Ag Center, 18710 SW 288th Street, Homestead. Please call Lize at (305) 248-3311 Ext. 242 at least 24 hours in advance.

Pesticide Training Class Policy: If you are unable to attend a training class, please call at least 24 hours in advance. If there is an emergency (death in the family, illness, accident or similar unavoidable conflict) after that point, please call as soon as possible after the class, preferably within 7 days. We will transfer your registration to the next identical class or the next class of your choosing. If you simply forget to show up, your payment is non-refundable and non-transferable.
